EVA "TOOTS" YARBROUGH

Last Tuesday night L. Backlund was the star of the evening. He ended up just two pins short of the cherished 250 mark with a very big 248 game. Short with 223 and Carlsson with 219, were his nearest contenders for the star spot. Then came H. W. Slover with 203, L. Deiningger with 202 and R. Reese with 202.

The Mixed doubles league came to a thrilling finish last Wednesday night. Lander-Morris had a three-game lead on Buckeroos, but they dropped the first two games to the Bucks, making the last one the deciding game in the league. It looked pretty dark for the Lander-Morris gang up until the last frame. They were seven marks down, but lo and behold, they all toed the foul line with grim determination, picked up all the lost marks only to lose the game and also the league by a short one pin count. Believe me, it was a battle to the finish.

J. Munger was the individual hot spot of the evening. He put together games of 200-193 and 236 for a huge 629 series. That's super in any man's bowling game. Larry Sommers was very close behind with games of 211-132 and 225 for a 618 series. That isn't to be sneezed at, either. Then along came W. Morris with 201-206 and 209 for a 616. All three are enviable series. Harold Buck helped Buckeroos to their game victory with his 219. Roy Tarket made the 209 club with 203 and K. Pedersen with 202. Pat Shaner outrolled the gals with games of 175-171 and 151 for 503. K. Morris rolled the high game among the ladies with 180. Next on the records came N. Bassett with 187 and K. Quigley with 171.

A. Holgerson outrolled the Thursday night slickers for high game of 242 to be named number one slicker. W. Peale was just ten pins shy with 232. L. Sommers was next on the list with 224, then J. Bassett with 222, A. Reko 214, R. Reese 212, E. Neesham 212, Silver 205, A. Vaughan 202 and Bud Zink 200.

I was given two strict orders from members of the Friday night Columbia Steel league. The first came from Red Bowden. It seems this is the first time Red has been on a team winning a league and he wanted to be sure the Rolling Mill received the proper recognition for winning the league. The second came from M. Coast in regard to his game of 225. Although R. Watson got two more pins to beat Max for high game of the evening, 225 is nevertheless something to crow about.

L. Gates was in a rut but it happened to be the right one 'cause he came through with two games of 211. G. Derouin had two nice games of 216 and 203. J. Gilner rolled 207, J.

Wallace 208 and J. Moore 206. The star night owl in the National Supply Swing Shift League seems to be a fellow known to me as Knapp. He holds the high game of 220 and also high series of 578. He has a 212 game to his credit also. Other 200 games are Bain with 211 and Beech with 200 even.

The Women's Matinee league started last Thursday afternoon, but we are still shy a few ladies to completely fill the teams. We had a lot of fun and would like to invite all of you ladies who are interested an have not yet done so, to sign up for a summer of fun.

Summer leagues are now forming and there are still openings on all leagues. All bowlers interested are asked to sign up before May 5.
